

We Can Do It!

The New Basics of Health Reform for Frontline HIV Workers

The HIVHealthReform.org We Can Do It! webinar series is focused on people working on the front lines of the HIV epidemic - case managers, peer navigators, planning council members, and other community members. It's the place to get targeted information to help you and your clients prepare for health care reform. For more information, see HIVHealthReform.org/webinars/WeCanDoIt.

Second webinar in the series: Marketplaces 101

Thursday, October 3 at 12-1:30 p.m. PT, 1-2:30 p.m. MT, 2-3:30 p.m. CT and 3-4:30 p.m. ET (note the correct time for your time zone!)

Visit www.hivhealthreform.org/webinars/wecandoit to register.

Are you a case manager, peer navigator, planning council member, or other person working on the front lines of the HIV epidemic? This free webinar is for you!

People with HIV will be able to buy health insurance through online marketplaces in October. We'll help you understand the tax credits and subsidies that make plans more affordable for low-income people, benefits that will be provided, coordination with ADAP and Ryan White programs, and other issues.

"Marketplaces 101" is the second webinar of the "We Can Do It!" series. Future webinars will cover Medicaid and the role of the Ryan White Program. Learn more at www.hivhealthreform.org/webinars/wecandoit
